

Fraud Advisory

Dear Customer,

It has been brought to our notice that hackers and fraudsters are taking advantage of the current pandemic situation and send emails and WhatsApp messages purporting as Sundaram Home Finance employees or partners and using a fake website address.

We would like to inform you that Sundaram Home Finance Limited (SHFL) does not collect cash as part of the processing fees / insurance charges nor does the company encourage this mode of transaction. We do not advise you to transfer money to any personal accounts of employees or any third parties. Please be cautious while opening suspicious attachments from third parties. We do not advise you to share personal documents to unknown persons or share them on suspicious websites. Please beware of such fraudsters and report such incidents to the company immediately and you can lodge a police complaint against such imposters. If you receive an email or message claiming to be from Sundaram Home Finance Limited approving loans and seeking you to pay such fees, please forward the email/message to us to check the authenticity.

You can send us an email at customercare@sundaramhome.in and bring to our immediate attention.

Thank you,

Sundaram Home Finance Limited
